FLCN 2010: Intermediate Chinese I

Course Objectives: Welcome to FLCN 2010, a second-year course for Mandarin Chinese students! In this course you will continue to gain basic knowledge of Chinese and develop integrated language skills: listening, speaking, reading and writing. Also, you will improve your Chinese to a level adequate for study abroad in China at an institution of higher education next year.

Course Prerequisites: FLCN 1020 or department approval.

Course Requirements:
• Homework includes: character sheets, grammar exercises, and occasionally assigned dialogues or compositions.

• We will have a vocabulary quiz every week, a lesson quiz every two weeks, and two comprehensive written exams (midterm & final). There will be no unannounced quizzes.

Grading System:
1) Class performance (10%)
2) Attendance (5%)
3) Homework assignments (20%)
4) Lesson quizzes (15%)
5) Vocabulary quizzes (10%)
6) Mid-term test (15%)
8) Final test (20% written; 5% oral)

Course Policies:
Grading Scale: A = 90-100, B = 80-89, C = 70-79, D = 60-69, F = 0-59%.

Students needing accommodations should arrange a meeting the first week of class. Come during office hours or email for an alternate time. Bring the Accommodation Memo and Instructor Verification Form to the meeting. Discuss items needed in this class. If you do not have an Accommodation Memo but need special accommodations, make an appointment with The Program for Students with Disabilities, 1244 Haley Center, 844-2096 (V/TT)

Academic Honesty: Students are expected to behave with integrity. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated and will be dealt with in the manner specified in the Tiger Cub.

Students may withdraw (although with a W on their transcript) until midsemester.

Make-ups for all missed and late work are allowed with proper University approved excuses within one week of the original due date.

Student emails will be answered within 48 hours of receipt.

The final exam will be given at the University set time and date.

Class attendance is required.

All readings are to be completed before coming to class.
There are no unannounced quizzes.
