    (20 Words or Less; exactly as it should appear in the Bulletin)
    Studio 4 Field Studies explores complex eco-cultural dynamics in a site relevant to studio, building conceptual, analytic and representational skills.

11. May Count Either or (Indicate if this particular course cannot be counted for credit in addition to another)

12. Affected Program(s):
    (Respond "N/A" if not included in any program; attach memorandum if more space is required)

13. Overlapping or Duplication of Other Units' Offerings:
    (If course is included in any other degree program, is used as an elective frequently by other unit[s], or is in an area similar to that covered by another college/school, attach correspondence with relevant unit)
    - ☐ Applicable
    - ☑ Not Applicable
14. Justification:
Recent accreditation report recommends curriculum revisions.

(include a concise, yet adequate rationale for the addition/revision of the course, citing accreditation, assessments (faculty, graduate, and/or external) where applicable)

15. Resources:
Not applicable

(indicate whether existing resources such as library materials, classroom/laboratory space, and faculty appointments are adequate to support the proposed addition/revision; if additional resources are required, indicate how these needs will be met, referencing the appropriate level of authorization - i.e.: Dean - where necessary; if no additional resources or shifting of resources will be necessary, respond "Not Applicable")

16. Student Learning Outcomes:
Students will be able to:
1. Demonstrate site forensics skills: including eco-cultural research, mapping, sketching, surveying, dialogic research, photography and videography,
2. Transfer interpretative and analytical material from fieldwork to studio projects.

(State in measurable terms (reflective of course level) what students should be able to do when they have completed this course)

17. Course Content Outline:
1. Preparation for travel
2. Travel to site or sites
3. Debriefing and interpretation of travel.

(Provide a comprehensive, week-by-week breakdown of course content, including assignment due dates)

18. Assignments / Projects:
1. Gather and collate site data by a range of means.
2. Use site data in studio projects.

(List quizzes, projects, reports, activities and other components of the course grade -- including a brief description of each assignment that clarifies its contribution to the course's learning objectives)

19. Rubric and Grading Scale:
Attendance and data collection/collation: 100%

List all components of the course grade -- including attendance and/or participation if relevant -- with point totals for each, indicate point totals and ranges or percentages for grading scale, for S/U grading, detail performance expectations for a passing grade)

20. Justification for Graduate Credit:
Graduate students will be required to demonstrate advanced site analysis and synthesis skills, integrating social, cultural and physical data in the interpretation of landscape conditions. A high degree of critical thinking is necessary in order for forensic material to be filtered and applied in design thinking.

(Includes a brief statement explaining how the course meets graduate educational standards (i.e.: rigorous standards for evaluation, development of critical thinking and analytical skills, etc.))

(Policy Statements

Attendance: Although attendance is not required, students are expected to attend all classes, and will be held responsible for any content covered in the event of an absence.

Excused Absences: Students are granted excused absences from class for the following reasons: illness of the student or serious illness of a member of the student's immediate family, the death of a member of the student's immediate family, trips for student organizations sponsored by an academic unit, trips for university classes, trips for participation in intercollegiate athletic events, absences for a court appearance, or religious holidays. Students who wish to have an excused absence from class for any other reason must contact the instructor in advance of the absence to request permission. The instructor will weigh the merits of the request, and render a decision. When feasible, the student must notify the instructor prior to the occurrence of any excused absences, but in no case shall such notification occur more than one week after the absence. Appropriate documentation for all excused absences is required. Please see the Tiger Cub for more information on excused absences.)
Make-Up Policy: Arrangement to make up a missed major examination (e.g., hour exams, mid-term exams) due to properly authorized excused absences must be initiated by the student within one week of the end of the period of the excused absence(s). Except in unusual circumstances, such as the continued absence of the student at the advent of university holidays, a make-up exam will take place within two weeks of the date that the student initiates arrangements for it. Except in extraordinary circumstances, no make-up exams will be arranged during the last three days before the final exam period begins.

Academic Honesty Policy: All portions of the Auburn University student academic honesty code (Title XI) found in the Tiger Cub will apply to university courses. All academic honesty violations or alleged violations of the SGA Code of Laws will be reported to the Office of the Provost, which will then refer the case to the Academic Honesty Committee.

Disability Accommodations: Students who need special accommodations in class, as provided for by the Americans With Disabilities Act, should arrange for a confidential meeting with the instructor during office hours in the first week of classes (or as soon as possible if accommodations are needed immediately). The student must bring a copy of their Accommodation Letter and an Instructor Verification Form to the meeting. If the student does not have these forms, they should make an appointment with the Program for Students with Disabilities, 1284 Haley Center, 844-2096 (WTT).
