15. Resources: The course is already being taught and the renumbering is simply that and requires no new resources for the course.

16. Student Learning Outcomes: The two-semester Honors Human Odyssey sequence will achieve a number of the university’s critical SLOs, notably improvement of (1) analytical skills and critical thinking, especially constructing an effective argument and critiquing an argument effectively; (2) effective communication, written and oral; (3) informed and engaged citizenship; (4) intercultural knowledge and diversity awareness; (4) scientific and technological literacy; and (5) information literacy.

17. Course Content Outline: This course has been taught for many years on the AU campus, and as this course proposal only involves a renumbering, no syllabus should be required in support of this form.

18. Assignments / Projects: See answer to number 17 above.

19. Rubric and Grading Scale: See answer to number 17 above.

20. Justification for Graduate Credit: NA

POLICY STATEMENTS

Attendance: Although attendance is not required, students are expected to attend all classes, and will be held responsible for any content covered in the event of an absence.

Excused Absences: Students are granted excused absences from class for the following reasons: illness of the student or serious illness of a member of the student’s immediate family, the death of a member of the student’s immediate family, trips for student organizations sponsored by an academic unit, trips for university classes, trips for participation in intercollegiate athletic events, subpoenas for a court appearance, and religious holidays. Students who wish to have an excused absence from class for any other reason must contact the instructor in advance of the absence to request permission. The instructor will weigh the merits of the request, and render a decision. When feasible, the student must notify the instructor prior to the occurrence of any excused absences, but in no case shall such notification occur more than one week after the absence. Appropriate documentation for all excused absences is required. Please see the Tiger Cub for more information on excused absences.
Policy: Arrangement to make up a missed major examination (e.g., hour exams, mid-term exams) due to properly authorized excused absences stated by the student within one week of the end of the period of the excused absence(s). Except in unusual circumstances, such as the continued absence due to the advent of university holidays, a make-up exam will take place within two weeks of the date that the student initiates arrangements for it. Except in unusual circumstances, no make-up exams will be arranged during the last three days before the final exam period begins.

Academic Honesty Policy: All portions of the Auburn University student academic honesty code (Title XII) found in the Tiger Cub will apply to university uses. All academic honesty violations or alleged violations of the SGA Code of Laws will be reported to the Office of the Provost, which will then refer the case to the Academic Honesty Committee.

Disability Accommodations: Students who need special accommodations in class, as provided for by the Americans With Disabilities Act, should arrange for a confidential meeting with the instructor during office hours in the first week of classes (or as soon as possible if accommodations are needed immediately). The student must bring a copy of their Accommodation Letter and an Instructor Verification Form to the meeting. If the student does not have these forms, they should make an appointment with the Program for Students with Disabilities, 1228 Haley Center, 844-2536 (VTT).
