10. Course Description:
    A survey of issues concerning race, class, and gender in contemporary multicultural societies around the world, including identity, immigration, assimilation, and linguistic choices.

10. May Count Either
    (Indicate if this particular course cannot be counted for credit in addition to another)

12. Affected Program(s):
    (Respond "N/A" if not included in any program)
    | Program Type | Program Title | Requirement or Elective? |
    |--------------|---------------|-------------------------|
    | Minor        | Minor in Global Cultures | optional |

13. Overlapping or Duplication of Other Units' Offerings:
    (If course is included in any other degree program, is used as an elective frequently by other unit(s), or is in an area similar to that covered by another college/school, attach correspondence with relevant unit)
    - [ ] Applicable
    - [x] Not Applicable
14. Justification:
The course is part of a new Minor in Global Cultures which provides students with the opportunity to study the diversity of world cultures, their differences as well as common human interests. The course will provide students with an overview of major societal issues in America and other societies around the globe. It will thus raise students' cross-cultural awareness and social responsibility.

(Include a concise, yet adequate rationale for the addition/revision of the course, citing accreditation, assessments (faculty, graduate, and/or external) where applicable)

15. Resources:
Departmental resources are already in place.

(Indicate whether existing resources such as library materials, classroom/laboratory space, and faculty appointments are adequate to support the proposed addition/revision; if additional resources are required, indicate how such needs will be met, referencing the appropriate level of authorization — i.e.: Dean — where necessary; if no additional resources or shifting of resources will be necessary, respond "Not Applicable")

16. Student Learning Outcomes:
Students will have a better understanding of contemporary society. They will also be better able to analyze issues of social or cultural difference. They will have a better appreciation of their own culture and cultures different from theirs.

(State in measurable terms (reflective of course level) what students should be able to do when they have completed this course)

17. Course Content Outline:
Week 1 and Week 2

Week 3 and Week 4
Us and the Other(s) – Psychology, Philosophy and Literature about the Otherness (various readings from national writers living outside of their homelands, images of the exotic in operas and literature, i.e. Puccini’s Madame Butterfly, Saint Pierre’s Paul et Virginie, etc. together with readings of Freud and Lacan, and selections from Transgressing the Modern by J. Jervis, 1999)

Week 5 and Week 6
Creating and Maintaining Stereotypes, Ideology, Language and Social Control (to include popular culture phenomena, such as advertising, linguistic choices, and cinematic/literary representations) Selected Readings: Race, Class, and Gender in the United States by Paula Rothenberg (1992)

Week 7 and Week 8
Gender relations, Family, and Community (to include multicultural family concept, masculinities, patriarchal constraints and development of feminist movements, and intermarriage) Selected Readings: Race, Class, and Gender by Chow, Wilkinson, and Zinn (1996), Racial and Cultural Minorities by Simpson and Yinger (1986)

Week 9
Bringing Gender and Race in the Workplace (to include gender and race effects on occupational prestige, immigration issues and laws, and U.S. and other welfare systems) Selected Readings: Race, Class, and Gender by Chow, Wilkinson, and Zinn (1996)
Week 10 and Week 11
Politics in multicultural societies (to include differences of national and international approaches to politics, the election campaigns and the targeted audiences, duties and rights of elected officials in the States in comparison to other countries, the effect of class, gender, and race and political involvement, religious issues) Selected Readings: Race, Class, and Gender, and international magazines/TV news.

Week 12 and Week 13
Aesthetic Differences – Physical Appearances, Fashion, and Artistic Expressions.

Week 14 and Week 15
Multicultural Communication/ Course Conclusions (to include languages and language hybridization in America – i.e. Spanglish and Italiene, international etiquette, teaching/learning in a culturally diverse society); and idioms and dialects in different parts of the world. Selected Readings: Multiculturalism by D. Goldberg (1994), Living in Spanglish by Ed Morales (2002) and English: One Language, Different Cultures (1999)

(Provide a comprehensive, week-by-week breakdown of course content, including assignment due dates)

18. Assignments / Projects:

WEEKLY IN CLASS QUIZZES
Multiple choice and open-ended questions based on weekly readings

ATTENDANCE/PARTICIPATION
Attendance is a part of the participation grade: A maximum of two unexcused absences will be allowed. The Auburn University Academic policy for properly authorized excused absences will be followed. After the second unexcused absence, 1% off the attendance and punctuality grade will be deducted per absence. If a student has more than five unexcused absences, s/he will be advised to withdraw from the course; but if s/he does not withdraw, 1% off the participation grade will be deducted per absence. Also, each lateness mark (given for arriving later than 10 minutes after each class has started) will be equivalent to ½ an absence mark. Each two lateness marks will add up a full absence. You are responsible for all material and announcements presented in class (even if absent). For tests, make-up is possible only under extenuating circumstances and the following conditions:
1) A planned excuse must be announced before the test and GET MY APPROVAL. All tests are announced in advance. Do not make any commitment on test dates without my approval.
2) For sickness or accident. You must provide written, documented, and verifiable justification.
3) In any case, the make-up must be taken no later than 48 hours after the test.
4) The make-up CANNOT BE the same or of the same format.
If you are late for a test or a quiz, do not expect any extension: test material will be turned in at the same time with other students.

Class participation grade: Participation in class will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

4.5-5 (A) Student volunteers often to participate and shows that s/he is always prepared. Shows leadership in class discussions and in pair and/or group activities.

4-4.49 (B) Student is usually well-prepared and willing to participate, though his/her answers show that s/he does not study as thoroughly as an A student. Participates voluntarily in class discussions and fully cooperates in pair and/or group activities.

3.5-3.99 (C) Student rarely volunteers, takes time to respond when spoken to, and sometimes is unprepared. Answers tend to be short and incomplete. Does not participate much in class discussions. Cooperates slowly or sometimes reluctantly in pair or group activities.

3-3.49 (D) Student never volunteers. Does not cooperate in pair and/or group activities. Sometimes his/her behavior can be demoralizing for his/her classmates.

0-2.99 (F) Student's behavior is disruptive and seriously hampers the other students' learning; or rarely attends class or understands what is happening or being discussed.

Other important policies:

(1) All assigned readings should be completed before the class in which they are discussed.
(2) Students will have until mid-semester to withdraw with a W on their transcripts.
(3) Please allow 24 hours for your e-mails and phone messages to be answered during weekdays, and 48 hours during weekends.

ONE 5-PAGE ESSAY (MID-TERM PROJECT)
Students will be asked to choose one particular issue of interest and to further research on the topic. They will need to consult also outside resources (to include personal interviews, newspaper articles, and critical material). Students will be asked to analyze the topic from several perspectives, to provide concrete examples, and to draw relevant conclusions. The essay should demonstrate student understanding of the causes and conditions and possible suggestions for the future.

FINAL WRITTEN EXAM
Final exam will be comprehensive and will contain multiple choice questions, associations, and essay questions.

(List all quizzes, projects, reports, activities and other components of the course grade — including a brief description of each assignment that clarifies its contribution to the course's learning objectives)

20. Justification for Graduate Credit: Not applicable

(Including a brief statement explaining how the course meets graduate educational standards (i.e.: rigorous standards for evaluation, development of critical thinking and analytical skills, etc.))

(Including below are standard statements regarding course policies. If necessary, a statement may be altered to reflect the academic policies of individual faculty members and/or the academic unit or department, provided that there is no conflict with the Tiger Cub, Faculty Handbook, or any existing university policy.)

REQUIRED STATEMENTS

Attendance: Although attendance is not required, students are expected to attend all classes, and will be held responsible for any content covered in the event of an absence.

Excused Absences: Students are granted excused absences from class for the following reasons: illness of the student or serious illness of a member of the student’s immediate family, the death of a member of the student’s immediate family, trips for student organizations sponsored by an academic unit, trips for university classes, trips for participation in intercollegiate athletic events, subpoena for a court appearance, and religious holidays. Students who wish to have an excused absence from class for any other reason must contact the instructor in advance of the absence to request permission. The instructor will weigh the merits of the request, and render a decision. When feasible, the student must notify the instructor prior to the occurrence of any excused absences, but in no case shall such notification occur more than one week after the absence. Appropriate documentation for all excused absences is required. Please see the Tiger Cub for more information on excused absences.

Make-Up Policy: Arrangement to make up a missed major examination (e.g.; hour exams, mid-term exams) due to properly authorized excused absences must be initiated by the student within one week of the end of the period of the excused absence(s). Except in unusual circumstances, such as the continued absence of the student or the advent of university holidays, a make-up exam will take place within two weeks of the date that the student initiates arrangements for it. Except in extraordinary circumstances, no make-up exams will be arranged during the last three days before the final exam period begins.

Academic Honesty Policy: All portions of the Auburn University student academic honesty code (Title XII) found in the Tiger Cub will apply to university courses. All academic honesty violations or alleged violations of the SGA Code of Laws will be report to the Office of the Provost, which will then refer the case to the Academic Honesty Committee.

Disability Accommodations: Students who need special accommodations in class, as provided for by the Americans With Disabilities Act, should arrange for a confidential meeting with the instructor during office hours in the first week of classes (or as soon as possible if accommodations are needed immediately). The student must bring a copy of their Accommodation Letter and an Instructor Verification Form to the meeting. If the student does not have these forms, they should make an appointment with the Program for Students with Disabilities, 1288 Haley Center, 844-2096 (V/TT).
