

Auburn University Academic Advising Mission Statement & Learning Outcomes

1/11/2013

Mission Statement

Academic advising at Auburn University is a student-centered, collaborative process which engages students in the clarification of their life/career goals and in the development of educational plans for the realization of these goals. It is a decision-making process intended to promote academic, personal, and professional development, while considering diverse interests, abilities, and goals. It is ongoing, multifaceted, and the responsibility of both student and advisor. The advisor serves as a facilitator of communication, a coordinator of learning experiences through course and career planning and academic progress review, and an agent of referral to other campus agencies as necessary.

Student Advisement Outcomes, derived from the Mission Statement

- a. Students will understand their responsibility in developing their academic plans and career choices.
- b. Students will view their advisors as well-informed and supportive partners in the development of their academic and career plans.
- c. Students will view their advisors as individuals who will refer them to other sources of information.
- d. Students will understand the AU academic policies that govern their academic progress.
- e. Students will understand how to obtain academic information.
- f. Students will understand requirements to make progress towards completing their degree program
- g. Students will complete their registration for the next semester in a timely manner
- h. Students will understand the student services available to support student success
- i. Students will understand how alternative career plans may affect academic plans